

Dear Lord,

You are the vine and we are the branches

May we learn to abide in You and bear Your fruit.

Teach us to slow down and find You within everyday moments.

Give us the courage and will to rearrange our lives in the ways that are necessary to experience Your deep joy, contentment, confidence, and peace.

May our lives become a beacon of hope to a hurting world.

In Jesus name,

Amen