Josiah Part 2, The Profile of Obedience

ICEBREAKER: Why did you choose your current job or one in the past?

- 1) What did you find the most challenging, helpful or troubling about the message?
- 2) In the first three verses of 2 Kings 23, we see King Josiah's foundation of obedience growing out of his relationship with our personal God. Why do you think this is important?
- 3) In 2 Kings 23:4-20, King Josiah thoroughly clears out and destroys anything that will pull people away from the one true God. What stands out to you in these verses? What in your life is keeping you away from worshipping the Lord?
- 4) Lastly Josiah calls the people to celebrate the feast of Passover. Why is this significant? How can obedience be celebrated today?

APPLICATION:

- Thank and praise God for His relational nature. He's not legalistic or mechanical, rather a personal, knowable God who loves and cares for you.
- Pray for God's conviction of sin and the courage to obey.
- Pray to be disciples of Jesus with a new perspective on joyful, thorough obedience.
- Reflect on what people see when they encounter you. Do they have a Jesus sighting?
