

Win the Day, part 2

“Kiss the Wave!”

---

Psalm 90:12

Our job is to give ourselves over to God, and if we do that day in and day out, God is going to show up and show off!

“But God” – Joseph Genesis 50:20

Where is your heaven on earth?

Kiss the wave

“I have learned to kiss the wave that throws me against the Rock of Ages” -Charles Spurgeon

You must learn to own the past or it might own you. You might not be responsible for all that has happened to you but you are response-able! – Mark Batterson, Win the Day

When we find ourselves in difficult situations, we get so focused on getting out of them, that we fail to get anything from them.

There is nothing wrong with asking God to change your circumstances, but His primary objective is changing you!

Kissing the wave starts with the courageous question: “What have you come to teach me?”

Matthew 26:31-35

Matthew 26:69-75

How do you “kiss the wave?”

John 21:1-13

1) Face your Fear

What is it that you fear? Identify it...

“The obstacle is the way forward!” Mark Batterson

John 21:7

Jesus communes with Peter and loves Peter in spite of...

1 John 4:12a

What is your Wave? What is it that you fear about the Wave?

2) Remember Jesus pursues you

When does Jesus show up?

When waves happen, understandably we tend to panic, over time we even tend to distract ourselves, "but God."

So much of being with God is recognizing God in the ordinary...

These are the moments that when we discover who God is and who we are.

3) Unleashing the power of the day starts with receiving His love and grace.

John 21:15-17

Full circle moment!

With one act of grace, Peter changed his story
With one act of grace, God flipped the script
With one act of grace, Peter kissed the wave

Unleashing the power of the day starts with receiving His love and grace!

1 Peter 5:10-11

Lamentations 3:22-23

*How might the "obstacle is the way" apply to the wave you face today?
What have you come to teach me?
How can you start your day differently to receive His love and grace?*
