Discussion Questions:

1. How has God used Christian community to sharpen or encourage you?
2. Why is it important to disciple the next generation of Christ-followers?
3. How can you use time you have each day or week to pour into the life of someone in the next generation?
4. What is one aspect of faith that you would really hope that someone in the next generation can grasp through you pouring into his/her life?
5. What are some natural ways you can show up in the life of someone in the next generation?
6. How can your own life be refined by partnering with someone in the next generation?
7. How does the church at large benefit when we disciple the next generation?
