1. What was something so wonderful to you that you couldn't wait to tell someone? Who did you tell? How did you tell them?
2. What kinds of things have deterred you from sharing the gospel/sharing your faith with a friend who may have needed to hear it?
3. Are you more likely to overtly share your faith with a friend or a stranger? Why?
4. Where/how does one find people to disciple/be disciplined by in our community?
5. How do you see your current role in the Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20)? Is this command currently a priority in your life?
6. Where would the formerly demon-possessed man have the most impact? Is there anyone in your life that you consider a “lost cause”?
7. Where in your world (Places? Relationships? People groups?) Do you want God to “open a door” for the message of Christ? In what ways do the doors seem closed?
8. What will you do this week to start, re-start or strengthen a relationship with someone in your sphere of influence?
