2. Read Colossians 4:12.

- What can we learn from this verse? What questions do you have?
- Do you think that there is a link between: knowing the will of God, the believers assurance, and spiritual maturity? Explain.

3. And his message Pastor Jacob said that God's guidance has an element of mystery. (see Isaiah 55:8-9; 2 Thess. 2:7)

- How would you counsel a believer who spiritually paralyzed concerning discerning Gods guidance? They may be feeling that God is not speaking to them, or be confused when attempting to discern the voice of God?
- How would you counsel a new believer who has excitement and zeal for the things of God and feels that God is directing them to do something but it doesn't seem to be inline with the word of God or His character. This situation could potentially a ploy from the enemy to distract them from the path that the Lord has or even knock them off completely.

4. Pastor Jacob mentioned two competing views concerning hearing the voice of God and his guidance.
  - George Whitefield - Gods guidance comes suddenly and immediately through impressions or impulses made on his mind and heart. Spirit focused light on accountability to the Word.
  - Jonathan Edwards - God's guidance comes through the application of His commands and principles found in the Word. Light on Gods spontaneous voice.
