

holy spirit
and you

rightnow MEDIA

A Free Gift from Our Church

Free Access to +25,000 Bible Study Videos—
Anytime, Anywhere, from Any Device

Get Access

Scan the QR code to create your free account and start browsing.

recommended book accessible to every reader clear and balanced intro to the person of the Holy Spiri

learn how to walk in greater intimacy with the Holy Spirit

learn about the biblical foundation for the Baptism of the Holy Spirit

grounded in Scripture

The Holy Spirit and You

Participant Study Guide

Two Rivers Church

Chapter 1 – The First Step

Chapter Summary:

Spiritual hunger is normal. God invites believers to desire more of His presence and empowerment.

Key Scriptures:

Acts 1:4–8; Luke 11:9–13; John 7:37–39

Historical & Theological Connections:

- Irenaeus emphasized Christian life as participation in the Spirit’s living work.
- Augustine described the Spirit as the bond of love drawing believers into communion with God.

Discussion Questions:

1. What kind of “spiritual hunger” do you recognize in yourself or the church today?
2. How does Acts 1:8 connect the Spirit’s power to mission and witness?

Notes & Reflection:

Chapter 2 – The Overflow

Chapter Summary:

The Spirit-filled life is ongoing—an overflow that shapes character, witness, and daily obedience.

Key Scriptures:

Ephesians 5:18; Romans 8:10–11; Psalm 23:5

Historical & Theological Connections:

- John Chrysostom stressed continual reliance on the Spirit for holy living.
- Eastern Christian writers often spoke of the Spirit’s work as God’s life “energizing” believers.

Discussion Questions:

1. What does “be filled with the Spirit” suggest about daily Christian life?
2. Where do you most need the Spirit’s overflow right now?

Notes & Reflection:

Chapter 3 – What Do the Scriptures Say?

Chapter Summary:

Scripture—especially Acts—presents the Spirit’s empowering work as part of normal church life.

Key Scriptures:

Acts 2:1–4, 38–39; Acts 10:44–48; Acts 19:1–6

Historical & Theological Connections:

- Justin Martyr referred to prophetic and spiritual gifts in early Christian life.
- Tertullian argued that spiritual manifestations continued in the church of his day.

Discussion Questions:

1. What patterns do you see repeated across Acts?
2. Why must Scripture govern spiritual experience?

Notes & Reflection:

Chapter 4 – Preparing to Receive the Baptism in the Holy Spirit

Chapter Summary:

Preparation emphasizes repentance, surrender, humility, and openness to God’s work.

Key Scriptures:

Psalm 51:10–12; James 4:6–8; Romans 12:1–2

Historical & Theological Connections:

- The Desert Fathers emphasized humility and repentance as protection against spiritual pride.
- Historic Christian spirituality links openness to God with ongoing formation and holiness.

Discussion Questions:

1. What does “preparation” look like without becoming striving or pressure?
2. What attitudes most hinder openness to the Spirit?

Notes & Reflection:

Chapter 5 – How to Receive the Baptism in the Holy Spirit

Chapter Summary:

Receiving is rooted in God’s promise and approached by faith, yielding, and trust.

Key Scriptures:

Luke 24:49; Acts 8:14–17; Galatians 3:2–5

Historical & Theological Connections:

- Cyril of Jerusalem taught expectation of the Spirit’s ongoing work in believers.
- Historic practice emphasizes prayerful reception as gift, not achievement.

Discussion Questions:

1. How does “receiving” differ from “earning”?
2. What would it mean to trust God’s promise more simply?

Notes & Reflection:

Chapter 6 – Introduction to the Gifts of the Holy Spirit

Chapter Summary:

Gifts are Spirit-given abilities meant to build up the church and serve others in love.

Key Scriptures:

1 Corinthians 12:1–11; Romans 12:4–8; Ephesians 4:11–13

Historical & Theological Connections:

- Origen viewed gifts as Spirit-enabled service strengthening the church.
- Early Christian teaching stressed gifts should produce edification and unity.

Discussion Questions:

1. Why are gifts given, according to 1 Corinthians 12?
2. How can gifts be used in ways that strengthen—not divide—the church?

Notes & Reflection:

Chapter 7 – Tongues and Interpretation

Chapter Summary:

Tongues can function in personal prayer and corporate settings when interpreted for edification.

Key Scriptures:

1 Corinthians 14:1–19, 27–28; Acts 2:4; Romans 8:26

Historical & Theological Connections:

- Many early writers connected spiritual prayer with deep dependence on God.
- Modern renewal movements emphasize aligning practice with Paul’s instruction for order.

Discussion Questions:

1. What does Paul emphasize as the purpose of public spiritual speech?
2. Why does interpretation matter in corporate worship?

Notes & Reflection:

Chapter 8 – The Gift of Prophecy

Chapter Summary:

Prophecy in the New Testament strengthens, encourages, and comforts—exercised humbly and tested.

Key Scriptures:

1 Corinthians 14:3; Acts 11:27–28; 1 Thessalonians 5:19–21

Historical & Theological Connections:

- The Didache reflects early Christian prophetic activity with ethical safeguards.
- The church historically stresses testing and accountability for spiritual speech.

Discussion Questions:

1. What does 1 Corinthians 14:3 say prophecy should accomplish?
2. What safeguards keep prophecy healthy and Christ-centered?

Notes & Reflection:

Chapter 9 – Gifts of Healing

Chapter Summary:

Healing is a gracious gift of God for restoration and witness, approached with compassion and humility.

Key Scriptures:

James 5:14–16; Acts 3:1–10; Matthew 10:7–8

Historical & Theological Connections:

- Irenaeus referred to healings occurring among Christians as part of witness.
- Historic pastoral care pairs prayer with gentleness, not blame.

Discussion Questions:

1. How can we pray for healing faithfully without pressure?
2. How should the church care for people when healing does not occur?

Notes & Reflection:

Chapter 10 – The Working of Miracles

Chapter Summary:

Miracles are acts of God that reveal His power and confirm His message, always pointing to Christ.

Key Scriptures:

Acts 5:12–16; John 2:1–11; Hebrews 2:3–4

Historical & Theological Connections:

- Gregory of Nyssa acknowledged miraculous works connected to God’s presence.
- The tradition emphasizes signs should lead to worship and obedience, not spectacle.

Discussion Questions:

1. What purposes do signs and miracles serve in the New Testament?
2. How can we keep attention on Christ rather than “spiritual excitement”?

Notes & Reflection:

Chapter 11 – The Gift of Faith

Chapter Summary:

A special Spirit-given faith brings extraordinary confidence in God for specific moments or needs.

Key Scriptures:

1 Corinthians 12:9; Hebrews 11:1–6; Acts 27:21–25

Historical & Theological Connections:

- Christian tradition often distinguishes saving faith from Spirit-empowered bold confidence.
- Many renewal testimonies emphasize faith as a gift that serves others.

Discussion Questions:

1. How is this gift different from ordinary faith?
2. How might God use extraordinary faith to strengthen the church?

Notes & Reflection:

Chapter 12 – Discerning of Spirits

Chapter Summary:

Discernment helps the church recognize what is from God and what is not, protecting truth and love.

Key Scriptures:

1 John 4:1–3; Acts 16:16–18; Matthew 7:15–20

Historical & Theological Connections:

- Ignatius of Antioch warned churches to guard unity and truth against deception.
- Historic pastoral wisdom teaches discernment should be humble, not suspicious.

Discussion Questions:

1. What tests does Scripture give for discernment?
2. How can discernment remain loving and pastoral?

Notes & Reflection:

Chapter 13 – Word of Knowledge and Word of Wisdom

Chapter Summary:

These gifts involve Spirit-given insight and guidance for specific situations—requiring humility and care.

Key Scriptures:

John 4:16–19; Acts 5:1–11; James 1:5

Historical & Theological Connections:

- Augustine connected wisdom to humility and love of God.
- The tradition warns that “certainty” without love can harm rather than heal.

Discussion Questions:

1. Why must these gifts be practiced with humility and restraint?
2. What safeguards help prevent misuse?

Notes & Reflection:

Chapter 14 – The Excellent Way

Chapter Summary:

Love is the foundation and measure of Spirit-filled living; gifts without love distort spiritual life.

Key Scriptures:

1 Corinthians 13; Galatians 5:22–23; John 13:34–35

Historical & Theological Connections:

- The Fathers consistently taught love is the clearest sign of holiness and maturity.
- Historic spirituality sees fruit as the “proof” of genuine spiritual power.

Discussion Questions:

1. Why does Paul place love above all gifts?
2. How do you see the Spirit growing fruit in your life?

Notes & Reflection:

Chapter 15 – Consecration

Chapter Summary:

Spirit-filled living is sustained by surrender—offering ourselves to God in ongoing holiness.

Key Scriptures:

Romans 6:13; Galatians 2:20; Hebrews 12:1

Historical & Theological Connections:

- Holiness traditions (including Wesley) emphasized consecration as ongoing, grace-filled surrender.
- Historic discipleship stresses daily obedience as the soil where gifts remain healthy.

Discussion Questions:

1. What does consecration look like in daily routines?
2. How does surrender become freedom rather than burden?

Notes & Reflection:

Chapter 16 – The Narrow Way

Chapter Summary:

Discipleship is Spirit-empowered obedience—daily following Jesus in humility, perseverance, and faith.

Key Scriptures:

Matthew 7:13–14; Luke 9:23; Galatians 5:16

Historical & Theological Connections:

- Early Christian discipleship emphasized formation through faithfulness, not spectacle.
- Bonhoeffer later echoed this: real discipleship is costly obedience to Christ.

Discussion Questions:

1. How does the Spirit empower obedience over time?
2. What “next step” of discipleship is Jesus inviting you into?

Notes & Reflection:

more learning resources

SCAN ME

GIFTED
SERMON SERIES BY PASTOR TOM

SCAN ME

SIGN UP
FOR MORE CLASSES
AT 2RC

2RIVERSCHURCH.ORG
JALDERMAN@2RIVERSCHURCH.ORG

two rivers
CHURCH