CULTURE LIES

A weathered wooden chair with a slatted back and seat, positioned against a textured, light-colored wall. The chair shows signs of age and use, with some discoloration and wear on the wood. The background wall has a mottled appearance with some darker spots and a shadow cast to the left.

Un-learn

discard (something learned, especially a bad habit or false or outdated information) from one's memory

A photograph of a wooden bench in a church setting. The bench is made of dark wood and is positioned in front of a light-colored, textured wall. The text is overlaid on the bench and wall.

Church is not a place,
it's a people living God's plan.

Acts 17:1-7 NLT

1 Paul and Silas then traveled through the towns of Amphipolis and Apollonia and came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue.

2 As was Paul's custom, he went to the synagogue service, and for three Sabbaths in a row he used the Scriptures to reason with the people.

3 He explained the prophecies and proved that the Messiah must suffer and rise from the dead. He said, "This Jesus I'm telling you about is the Messiah."

4 Some of the Jews who listened were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, along with many God-fearing Greek men and quite a few prominent women.

Acts 17:1-7 NLT

5 But some of the Jews were jealous, so they gathered some troublemakers from the marketplace to form a mob and start a riot. They attacked the home of Jason, searching for Paul and Silas so they could drag them out to the crowd.

6 Not finding them there, they dragged out Jason and some of the other believers instead and took them before the city council. “Paul and Silas have caused trouble all over the world,” they shouted, “and now they are here disturbing our city, too. 7 And Jason has welcomed them into his home. They are all guilty of treason against Caesar, for they profess allegiance to another king, named Jesus.”

Matthew 16:18 NLT

¹⁸ Now I say to you that you are Peter (which means ‘rock’), and upon this rock I will build my church, and all the powers of hell will not conquer it.
