“And it shall be on the sixth day that they shall prepare what they bring in, and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.”

Subject: Wait Til You See What's Next

I. God Rains Down Blessings

God provided manna in the wilderness—daily, dependable, divine provision. Every morning was a fresh reminder of His faithfulness.

Reflect: How has God surprised you with blessings when you least expected them?

Notes: _____

II. God Places Limitations On Them

The Israelites could only gather enough for each day. God's limits protected them from greed and built their trust.

Reflect: What limits has God placed in your life to grow your discipline or faith?

Notes: _____

III. God Produces A Reliance

The manna test taught dependence—daily bread for daily trust. God wants us to rely on Him, not what's in our hands.

Reflect: How is God teaching you to trust Him for what's next?

Notes: _____

Takeaway Thought:

“When you can't see what's ahead, trust the God who's always been your source. Wait til you see what's next!”

Personal Reflection & Prayer:

Lord, help me to trust Your timing, Your provision, and Your plan. Teach me to wait in faith and walk in expectation.
