

Kindlings Muse at Earl Palmer Ministries with Dick Staub and Earl Palmer

November 26, 2018

Dorothy L. Sayers

Writer of the Radio Play:

The Man Born to be King performed on BBC during the Battle of Britain December 1941- October 1942

“That God should play the tyrant over man is a dismal story, that man should play the tyrant over man is the usual dreary record of human futility, but that man should play the tyrant over God and find him a better man than himself is an astonishing drama indeed” - Dorothy L. Sayers - page 7

Creed or Chaos?

Dorothy L. Sayers (1893 - 1957), graduated in 1915 with first class honors in medieval literature from Oxford University 1915. Soon afterward she would write a detective story “Whose Body” in 1923, which would become the first of 15 mystery novels featuring her sleuth Lord Peter Wimsey and the woman he loved throughout the stories: Harriet Vane.
