

WHAT WOULD JESUS UNDO?

WHAT WOULD JESUS UNDO?, PART 1: SPIRITUAL INDIFFERENCE

WWJD is not a bad question. It's just not helpful without an understanding of what Jesus would NOT do. Better yet, it is important for us to consider what Jesus would UNDO. When you've "been there, done that" it is easy to slip into indifference. It's easy to be nonchalant. In fact, it's quite normal. However, normal is not the way of Jesus. Jesus came to flip normal on its head. Jesus didn't come to make things normal. He came to make things new.

BIG IDEA: Indifference doesn't just break Jesus' heart. It makes him want to vomit.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Talk about a time you were criticized. How did it feel? Did you grow up in a more critical or encouraging home atmosphere?
2. Which cause of indifference do you most easily identify with—the illusion of self-sufficiency or the distractions of this world? Read Mark 4:19. What stands out to you from this list? How do these things "choke the word"?
3. In the message, Carlo mentioned some signs that point toward indifference: I'm more concerned with impressing people than living for God; I'm obsessed with life on Earth rather than eternity; I rationalize sin and live without truly fearing God; I believe in Jesus, but I rarely share my faith.; I only turn to God when I need Him; I'm not much different from the world.
4. Which of the six "indifferent" spiritual challenges do you struggle with most? Why?
5. Read Revelation 3:19. How do you feel when you read this? Is there anything you need to turn from?
6. Read Revelation 3:20. What would it look like for you to open the door to God in an area where you're mostly indifferent?

Changing Your Mind

Pray this together as a group:

God, after what You've done for us, we have no reason to live with indifference in our lives. Jesus, will You show us what You want to undo in our lives? Holy Spirit, please give us the strength to wake up every day in full reliance on You. Amen!
