

ONE ANOTHERING ONE ANOTHER, PART 4: CONFESS TO AND PRAY FOR ONE ANOTHER

What do the "One Anothers" of bearing burdens, and encouraging have in common? They require you to know how to do each of them. They require that the "One Anothers" are known by other "One Anothers". Being known can be scary, especially to be fully known. For people to know the real us means revealing something we might be scared to reveal. Today we talk about revealing to one another is part of the healing one another in God's plan.

THE BIG IDEA: God is faithful to heal when we reveal to and pray for one another.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What stood out to you from the sermon of "One Anothering One Another", part 5?
  - a. What did you learn? What did you already know? What challenged you? What part are you still not sure about, or disagreed with?
2. Think and share time when you caught someone "sinning"? How did you respond? Did you? How would you have responded if they would have confessed rather than catching them?
3. Have you ever confessed like scripture in James 5:16 Says to do?

*Confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful results. James 5:16 NIV
4. If yes, then how did it turn out? If no, then what kept you from doing so then? What is keeping you from doing so now?
5. Can you remember a time when someone prayed for a sin you confessed? Bearer that burden with you? Spurred you on to repentance? Encouraged you through the process?
  - a. If so what did one or all of those look like?

MOVING FORWARD

You know what sin you need to confess. I, Seth, believe God has probably revealed it to you. You'll never know all the healing and life giving you could do for others if you don't confess. DO NOT continue without talking to someone. This is a passion of mine and I will help in anyway I can. Anyway oneChurch can. At the very least we can help you find community to bear the weight of this journey!.

CHANGING YOUR MIND

We know that God does not listen to sinners. He listens to the godly person who does his will. John 9:31 (NIV)
