(SO DON'T MISS IT)

IT'S JUST A PHASE PART FOUR: RAISING KIDS OF INTEGRITY

Integrity. It's something we all want our kids to have. But how do we help them find it in a world full of compromises? The answer might surprise you. We'll look at one essential key to building integrity in your child and in your home that could change everything.

BIG IDEA: Be the person you want your child to become.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. We always look to leaders to be people of integrity. Any idea why we do that? Why do we become disillusioned when leaders don't have integrity?
2. To have integrity means to survive a crisis 'intact'. What makes it hard for you as a parent to stay 'intact' through the storms of life?
3. With your Bible or YouVersion, read Proverbs 20:7.

The godly walk with integrity; blessed are their children who follow them.

Proverbs 20:7 (NLT)

4. Name several ways you can think of in which the integrity of a parent ends up blessing a child.
5. How much personal time do you set aside each week to care for and grow yourself as a person?
6. How could you spend more time for personal growth and transformation? What would that look like for you?

MOVING FORWARD

This week, spend some time working on how to become more like the person you want your child to become. Figure out what needs to change, and spend the time you need to begin making the needed change.
