Proverbs 3:5-6, James 4:7-8, Hebrews 11:23-24

- We have limitations but He doesn't
- Our knowledge and vision is limited
- Our personal perspective is often shaped by what we see, feel, and experience
- There will be moments when God's direction doesn't make sense to us
- There will be seasons when we can't understand what He's doing
- We must remember that God sees what we can not see
- He sees the entire journey
- We see the battle when God already sees the victory
- You can trust His reason and His heart
- Before you can successfully resist the enemy, you must first submit yourself to God
- Submission is not weakness
- You can not resist the devil in your own strength
- You stand in power and authority of His Word
- When a child of God is fully surrendered, prayerful, and obedient, hell recognizes the Authority that stands behind that life
- You have a calling on your life, but He may be waiting on full surrender
- God always has a purpose for our lives
- The wrong influence in your life will always hinder the plan and purpose that God has for you
- You were not made for this world. You're just passing through
- Don't make the mistake of settling for this world
