

Be Still and Know

9/9/26

Rev. Tyler Howell

2 Chronicles 20: 2,15,17; Exodus 14: 5-8, 13-14

- Be still and know that I am God
- He knows the beginning from the ending. He has everything in control
- He knows every trial and tribulation that we will ever go through
- Does it seem like everything around you is falling apart? Fear of tomorrow? Set your face to seek the Lord!
- We do not know what to do, but our eyes are on You!
- But God in His perfect time moves upon those who be still
- The battle is not yours but God's
- Stand firm, hold your position
- Don't throw in the towel
- Fear not!
- The Lord will fight for you, you only need to be silent
- God is always working everything out behind the scenes
- Everything will fall into place
- Don't forget what God has already done
- Know that He is God!
- Stop fighting in your own strength. Understand who is in control
- Drop your grip. Surrender full control
- All God to do what only He can do
- Relax! God doesn't give the spirit of fear but of power and love and a sound mind
- Being still doesn't mean that you do nothing. Faithfully serve and seek Him, and surrender the outcome to God
