2 Corinthians 5:17-21, Hebrews 12:14

- Jesus became the ultimate sacrifice for our sin
- God has provided reconciliation by the death of Jesus Christ
- The death on the cross changed our position
- He willingly gave His life, but rose on the third day
- He that knew no sin became sin for us. He got our sin, but we got His righteousness
- He was the Creator who stepped into His own creation
- Here we are today!
- He paid a debt that He did not owe
- The Author entered the story
- Live a life holy and acceptable to Him
- He loved us even as sinners
- He paid the price that we could never pay
- He has brought us a long way
- When you fully surrender to Christ, everything changes
- The old life is buried, a new life begins
- Salvation is a complete transformation
- Shake off those chains!
- He is beyond worthy! He makes all things new
- When you came to Him, you came empty, but you don't leave empty
- Walk in the newness of life
- Sin has separated us from a holy God. He became our peace
- There's power in reconciliation
- God initiated reconciliation
- Christ died for us
