

From Donkeys to Destiny: 1 Sam 9-10

5/20/26

Rev. Paul Farley

- The heart is deceitful above all things
- Sometimes what feels like an interruption in our lives, is actually an introduction to your purpose. It's the beginning of something God is pushing you into
- Wake up and pay attention
- Saul goes out, looking for lost donkeys and God is working behind the scenes to bring him into a calling that he never applied for.
- God can use an ordinary assignment to lead you to an extraordinary purpose
- God often times works through the interruptions in our lives
- What we call inconvenience, God calls direction
- God is redirecting your steps
- God's permission doesn't mean that God has lost control
- Even when people are pushing their own preferences, God is still directing the outcome
- Your faithfulness in the ordinary is often your door into the extraordinary
- You need to be careful who you listen to
- God uses your Pastor to speak into your life
- IF it contradicts the Word of God, it's not from God
- Who has permission to speak into your life?
- Are you only listening to the voices that agree with you?
- It's not just luck. It's God ordering your steps.
- Be faithful where you are.
