2 Corinthians 11:1-4, 1 Peter 2:12, Proverbs 6:16

- Why tell the truth when a lie will do? When you tell a lie, you have to remember the narrative you've created
- Your eyes tell the story
- Jesus Christ is the Truth. He embodied truth
- Truth must come from the inward heart. Honesty is inward truth
- Honestly walk before the Lord
- Honesty is a core trait
- Honesty is a character trait of Christianity
- Christianity should produce honest people
- Christianity does not begin in the church
- Being Pentecostal is not a worship style. It's a lifestyle
- It's hard to believe the truth from someone who always tells lies
- Living with a clear conscience before God, standing on the foundation of inward truth and honesty will actually make you a better person and help others to have faith in you
- We should desire a clean and pure heart before God
- We're not perfect, but the Holy Ghost should lead and guide you
- When we mess up, we know we've messed up
- Honesty has an enemy- Satan, the father of lies
- Covering up mistakes prevents accountability
