

1 Samuel lesson 1

4/15/26

Rev. Paul Farley

1 Samuel 1, Jeremiah 15:1, Psalm 99:6, Numbers 6

- God uses our deepest pain to prepare us for our greatest purpose
- He starts His greatest works in private pain
- Theocracy- God would be seen as God in charge
- The people longed for a king like the neighboring nations had
- God allowed it, even though it was not His will
- Samuel was a Levite
- God hears. God is my judge
- God will find a certain man and work through him
- The Bible is our guide
- Continue worshipping even when leadership is flawed
- Separate God's worthiness from people's unworthiness
- It's possible for problems at home to make your time at the house of God miserable
- Is something hindering your worship?
- God is in control even when things get hard
- Why do bad things happen to good people? Let Him complete His plan
- Call on the Lord of hosts
