Romans 8:29:31, Isaiah 46:10, Revelations 13:8, Matthew 20:16

- God is all knowing. He inhabits time like we inhabit space
- The cross is not God's knee jerk reaction to sin
- God knew that man would fall into sin. He knew that there'd be a need for redemption
- He knew that some would accept redemption and some would reject it
- What is predestinated will come to pass. It cannot be altered
- God sees the end from the beginning
- He will have a church without spot or blemish
- He predestined Calvary
- A light would shine in this dark world
- His church will be victorious
- It's up to you and I whether we will be a part of His church
- Through it all, the church will be standing
- It's not a limited calling. It's whosoever will
- It's what you do with the call of God on your own life
- Only those who answer the call are actually called out of sin
- You have to answer the call. It's your choice.
