Ruth 1:19-22

- What you do is far more important than what you say
- Faith is demonstrated in action
- Stay with your commitment as long as it's God's plan for your life
- Your flesh will always provide an excuse or reason
- You must have a made up mind
- We've got to keep pressing on
- Naomi left confident but returned broken, which caused quite a commotion in her town
- She appeared in poverty and stressed
- Sin leads you out with so many promises but it's always empty
- Naomi-happy and pleasant
- Mara-Bitter
- Sweet promises sometimes end up bitter
- You will reap for your choices
- Don't lay blame at the feet of God
- Some choices leave bitter results
- How often do people turn to the world but end up empty?
- It robs you of everything but doesn't have to be the end of your story. Walk into the blessings of the Lord
- God always has a plan
- Get out of Moab. The grace of God will pursue you and call you home
- He will not force you to leave
- Return to the blessing of the Lord
- When God does the breaking it's always for our benefit.
- Naomi didn't realize that her kinsman was also her Redeemer.
