John 1:1-3, Colossians 1:16-17

- Mary thought the Risen Savior was a gardener- she did not recognize Him. He planted the first garden
- You and I are His garden. We need Him to make us fruitful
- All things were made of Him
- The One who created trees would be hung on a cross
- The mountains testify of His glory
- He can create something new in your life
- You are not an accident nor meaningless
- The manufacturer understands the product and design
- The Creator is still creating
- There's something about the voice of the Creator
- He knows exactly where you are
- You can't fix things on your own. Pick up the life of righteousness
- He can speak into darkness and light comes
- The Creator can restore you and make you new
- When you understand who Jesus really is, Calvary takes on a different view
