1 Kings 20:23-27, Isaiah 42:3, John 10:10

- Your enemy is an expert in deception. Peace gets swallowed up by doubt and fear
- The grace of God keeps reaching for you
- The adversary has traps for us- but God!
- Sometimes you're going to win victories you didn't deserve. It's the grace and mercy of God
- A bruised reed will break under pressure
- It's never too late to turn back to God. His grace rights every wrong. He doesn't give up easily
- Your enemy isn't done with you but neither is God
- God keeps reaching for you
- With God, it doesn't matter where you're at
- For every high point, there's also a low point
- You're not going through the valley alone
- The enemy stalks you in your valleys. He comes with everything he's got in your moments of overwhelming
- What are you seeing today?
- Never trust the view from the valley
- Remind yourself what things looked like on your mountain top
- Your enemy understands how the valley affects you
- God's mercy and grace will help you overcome
- God has not abandoned you in your valley
- Satan reminds you of your mistakes
- God's still reaching for you
