Numbers 23:5-8, Numbers 25:1-3

- How shall I curse whom God has not cursed?
- Satan tries to curse what God has already blessed but he cannot unless we step out of alignment with God
- You are not who you used to be
- You need to make a choice- are you going to live a life for the old man or the new?
- Don't revert back to the life before God saved you
- I want to live what I see in my reflection
- The old man has to die
- Trouble and sickness doesn't get the final word
- If God is for you, who can be against?
- No power in hell can reverse what heaven has already spoken
- The enemy has tried to convince you that your life is over, but God isn't done!
- Don't mess with them because they're blessed
- Hell cannot veto what heaven has already declared
- You are blessed
- There's a danger in continually asking God about something He's already told you no to.
