Genesis 18:13-14, Jeremiah 32:27, Hebrews 11:11, Jeremiah 32:6-8

- Waiting is sometimes God's perfect will. His ways are above ours
- There is nothing too hard for the Lord!
- The timing is based on God's timing, not ours
- The more extreme the famine, the less you remember the good times
- God's timing is perfect
- God has a plan
- Waiting on the timing of the Lord is the real task
- He doesn't work on our time table. A delay is not a denial
- Don't walk through life frustrated. He can do it!
- Doing the right things and not seeing results is frustrating
- It's easy to believe, but when it hits your door step, it's a lot harder
- God is not a respecter of persons
- He's an on time God, yes He is
- We want God to perform on our time table but He doesn't
- You may just have to stand the test of time
- Blessed is the man who endures
- God is looking for someone willing to stand. He is willing and able
- Instead of fussing and complaining, we must trust and believe
- Let God arise!
- He's Alpha and Omega
- Trusting Him is important
- You reap what you sow
