1 Samuel 12-15

- Samuel is giving a farewell
- This marks a major transition for Israel
- It was the Lord that advanced Moses and Aaron
- Fear the Lord and serve Him
- The hand of the Lord will be against you if you rebel/disobey
- Samuel had God send the storm to the Israelites, making it a clear sign of God's power, that they committed a great crime and wickedness by rejecting God as ruler and demanding a human king.
- Saul had a son named Jonathan
- The people were as the sand of the seashore
- Saul, without Samuel, offered up a burnt offering
- There are guidelines in place for a reason
- Don't try to out think God
- Don't try to figure things out on your own
- God doesn't need us to improvise for Him. He doesn't work on our timetable
- Saul took matters into his own hands
- He made a terrible decision
- It's important that you stay in the plan of God
- I want to be in the plan of God
- Jonathan launched a surprise attack
- Seek divine guidance
