

1 Samuel 24-25

7/15/26

Pastor Page

- David sparing the life of King Saul in the wilderness
- David showed restraint and respect
- Be careful about who you speak against
- God judges accordingly. Be careful how you handle them
- You still need to honor and respect the people that God has anointed and put in your life
- We need to be on the same page
- You have to have a level of honor and respect
- David had a tender heart
- Have respect for Divine authority
- Trust the Lord's timing, rather than take vengeance
- True righteousness treats enemies with undeserved mercy
- Wickedness proceeds from the wicked
- Saul lifted up his voice and wept
- This is the end of an era
- Abigail was a woman of good understanding
- Peace be to you, your house, and all that you have
- A rude response exposes the condition of your heart
- Don't respond with contempt
- Pride blinds people to God's work
- Don't fail to recognize who God has chosen
- A grateful heart remembers the people God has used to bless us.
