

Learning to Say No

9/16/26

Pastor Page

Numbers 14:3-7, Joshua 14:11, James 4:7, Deuteronomy 6:23

- The promise is before us
- Are you listening?
- Fear will make bondage look better than battle
- Fear will convince you that going backwards is easier than trusting God to take you forward
- Don't let the giants make you forget how good the promise is
- You did not come this far to go back
- He brought you out because He intended to bring you in to the light
- He brought you out of your past to bring you into His purpose
- Say no to outside influences
- Be determined to stay
- You cannot possess every thing and still possess everything that God has promised you
- Faith does not require a majority
- Be willing to stand alone
- Resist Satan and temptation
- We have to make a decision
- I'm not going back
- Don't let the length of the wilderness stop you from believing the promise
- I will not let yesterday's disappointment cancel today's faith
- Let's get rid of the complaining, negative tongue
- You've got to guard what you allow to settle in your spirit
- The promise is greater than what I see