

Trust In God's Promises

1/21/26

Rev. Pau Farley

Numbers 23:19, Malachi 3:6, Psalm 119:89, Isaiah 55:11, Titus 1:2, 2 Corinthians 1:20, Romans 4:19-21

- God is not a man that He should lie
- God wants to show us something
- Before we can trust a promise, we must at first trust the person making it
- There is One whose Word never fails
- When He speaks, it's done
- When He promises, it comes to pass
- God's character guarantees the reliability of His Word
- Humans overpromise
- God is unlimited. He never miscalculates, never forgets, never changes
- If His nature is truth, His promises are certain
- In due season, it shall come to pass
- Nothing is too hard for the Lord
- Promised people are not perfect people. They trust the promises of God
- Delay is not denial. It's discipleship
- God is that sure guide. He's never lost a traveler that trusted His lead and He won't start now
- Evangelism is our mandate. Empty chairs are opportunities for someone to come to Truth
- Don't let your feelings be the loudest voice in the room. Let His voice be the loudest
- Worship is not a reaction to good news. Worship is a weapon in the battle
- Trust turns midnight into miracles
- First the Word, then the world
