

1 Samuel 29-30

7/29/26

Sis. Amanda Spann

- David placed himself in a precarious position
- David and his men traveled in the rear of the army
- David was trusted by King Achish
- David had to be careful in his response. He had to reassure Achish
- Achish referred to David as an angel of God
- David's city was burned and his wives were taken captive
- Relief was replaced with sorrow
- David was no stranger to sorrow
- David fought for his life several times
- Every time that David began to have a little hope, he was knocked back down again
- David was weary, upset, tired, scared
- David had a decision to live in his emotions and circumstances and give up or respond differently
- David encouraged himself in the Lord his God
- He had a personal relationship with God
- Have you failed to seek God's voice and counsel?
- David knew that God was with him. He'd been with him every step
- David had the sword of the Spirit- the Word
