- His throne will live forever
- God has been good to you and me
- The water from His well is sweeter than any other
- Do you have a heart felt longing? Only He can quench your thirst
- My soul thirsts for God!
- Our King laid down His life
- The drink was bought with the blood
- Thirst resides in the heart of humanity and nothing can quench the thirst but God
- Don't drink of the waters of this world. It only makes you more thirsty
- Sin never satisfies the thirsting of the soul. Emptiness will still be there
- A stream flows through the old rugged cross
- He battled the enemy that sought to destroy us
- He loved you when you thought no one else did
- Don't let the enemy keep you away from the Well
- Whatever it takes is what I'm willing to do to get to the Well
- It's worth any sacrifice for just one drink
- He gives us a lifetime of water from the Well
