Luke 5:2-4, Mark 10:21

- Sometimes you're just ready for a change
- Peter at first objected when Jesus told him to fish again
- It was no accident that Jesus was there
- When people have been going through tough times, they're ready to do right.
- If everything is going well, you're more reluctant
- It was a costly call
- He called them on their best day
- Leave it all and follow Him
- Jesus loved him
- Take up your cross and follow Him
- What He's wanting is just you
- Fully surrender- the cross will cost you everything
- The cost will never compare to the benefits
- The cost will never equal the reward- the reward is much greater
- It's never easy to answer God's call
- Give your all at the altar
- Are you ready to commit?
- Not my will, but Yours
- There will never be a convenient season to follow God-it's right now
