Revelation 12:1-5, 7-11; Colossians 2:15, 1 Corinthians 2:1-5, 25; 1 Corinthians 1:18; Luke 22:19-20, Philippians 2:6-11

- There was a war in Heaven
- The King of Kings came as a Lamb
- The raw strength of sin was overcome
- He can calm any storm
- Nothing was impossible to Him
- Sin demanded death. The cross was God's final answer to sin
- He was wounded for our iniquities
- The Lamb was doing what no lion could do
- It's by His blood we are set free
- The cross was not a loss of control
- It is finished. He declared victory
- We have all fallen short, but God!
- The price for sin was forever paid
- The cross was in God's plan from the very foundation of the world
- We make mistakes and do what we can to try to cover it up
- Sin separates us from the presence of God
- God's answer for sin was death
- Sin requires a drastic answer
- God became a man. Therein lies our hope
