GSFEST AND THE BARNABAS PROJECT

The fall semester is a very busy time around GSFBC! One of the events we have hosted the past several years is GSFest.

While planning for the Barnabas Project, which was originally scheduled in the spring but had to be postponed to the fall, it became very apparent that trying to do two huge back-to-back community outreach events would be too taxing on the volunteers and the finances needed to do both events with excellence. Realizing this was the case, Paige Shepard, GSFest coordinator, approached the staff asking them to consider not doing GSFest this year. After much evaluation, we have decided to take a year off from hosting GSFest.

Instead of blessing our community with GSFest this year, we will serve in other ways through the Barnabas Project Day of Service on Sunday, October 23. More details will be coming soon, so go ahead and save the date. We are looking forward to serving our community together through the Barnabas Project!

CHILDCARE FOR PRAYER GATHERING

In an effort to allow more families to participate in our Sunday evening Prayer Gathering, we are offering childcare for ages birth - 3rd grade. Children ages birth - pre-k may be dropped off in the Preschool area. Children ages kindergarten - 3rd grade may be dropped off at the Children's Welcome Center. We hope you will join us for intentional prayer in the Worship Center at 6:00pm!

Wednesday Night Chapel, a hymn-driven worship service, begins September 21 at 5:50pm in Sanders Hall Commons. Join us for Fellowship Supper at 5:00pm and make plans to stay after for worship and a message.
