

Joshua Lesson 3 (Chapter 2)

A Convert in Canaan

- Only two women are named in Hebrews 11: Sarah and _____ [1].
- Sarah was godly; Rahab was a pagan _____ [2] — but both exercised saving faith.
- She is linked with _____ [3] as an example of faith demonstrated by works.
- Rahab was included in the genealogy of _____ [4].
- Rahab's life proves that where sin abounded, _____ [5] abounded much more.
- The most important thing about Rahab was her _____ [6].

Courageous Faith (2:1–7)

- Rahab put faith in Jehovah _____ [7] before the spies arrived.
- Jericho was a small _____ [8] with double walls; Rahab's house was on the wall.
- Jericho was a strategic city in Joshua's plan — its fall would divide the land.
- Joshua sent two spies to gather intel, not out of _____ [9], but as wise preparation.
- By providence, the spies were led to Rahab, the only believer in Jericho.
- Jesus was called 'friend of publicans and _____ [10].'
- Rahab risked her _____ [11] by hiding the spies; true faith cannot remain hidden.
- Lying is still a _____ [12], yet wartime ethics complicate the issue.
- Her _____ [13] was conspicuous; James cites her actions as evidence she was truly a believer.

Confident Faith (2:8–11)

- Faith is only as good as its _____ [14].
- True faith involves the whole _____ [15]: mind, emotions, and will.
- Rahab declared: 'I _____ [16] the LORD has given you the land.'
- Her faith was grounded in God's _____ [17] — the Red Sea and Israel's victories.
- The Canaanites had heard and their hearts melted in _____ [18].
- Her confession: 'The LORD your _____ [19], He is God in heaven above and on earth beneath.'
- Rahab's conversion was an act of God's _____ [20] — she was under condemnation but shown mercy.
- True assurance rests on the Word, the Spirit, and a changed _____ [21].

Concerned Faith (2:12–14)

- Rahab was concerned not only for herself but for her _____ [22] salvation.
- The spies gave her a twofold _____ [23]: their word and their lives.
- This foreshadows Christ, our eternal _____ [24].
- Rahab had to keep the agreement _____ [25].

Covenant Faith (2:15–24)

- A covenant often included a _____ [26] — Rahab's token was the scarlet rope.
- Rahab's token was the _____ [27] in her window.
- The scarlet rope recalls the _____ [28] of the Passover lamb.
- Rahab and her family were saved not by the rope, but by faith in the _____ [29].

- Her obedience encouraged _____ [30] and the Israelites.
- Israel still had unfinished _____ [31] before entering the land fully.

Key Takeaways

- God's grace reaches the most unlikely.
- True faith produces works that prove it is genuine.
- Real faith seeks the salvation of others.
- Faith rests on God's covenant promises, not rituals.
