Community Group Questions: Judges 4-5

1. After an 80-year period of peace and God's blessing, what would cause God's people to turn away and do evil instead of continuing to obey him?
2. What makes it tough for us to live among "the Canaanites" without becoming one of them?
3. Have you experienced a powerful time of group prayer where people were asking God for help together? What made that time special for you? How did the group experience God's response?
4. Jesus is our Deliverer instead of Deborah. He calls us to stand in the face of evil, too. But how is following Jesus different than following Deborah? What do you think about those differences?
