Community Group Questions: Ephesians 1:3-14

1. How does the concept of God as “Father” resonate with you?
2. When you interact with Christians who are different from you, is it helpful to think of them as “brothers and sisters” since Christians are all part of the “family of God?”
3. What do you think it means to feel “blessed” by the promises of God? Does it feel special to know that you are forgiven and included in his family by grace? Why or why not?
4. When people talk about the Holy Spirit, they are often preoccupied with his miracles (language translation, healing, demon-defeating, prison-releasing, etc.). How do stories about his miracles impact your faith?
5. There appears to be a powerful connection between the Holy Spirit and a supernatural community of believers who are dramatically different from each other (Jews, God-fearing Greeks, Pagan Greeks). Do you think that is a miracle? Do you think it could happen today? If so, what would it look like?
6. Do you feel secure in your relationship with God? Why or why not?
7. Do you feel secure in your relationship with the “Body of Christ?” Why or why not?
