Community Group Questions:

The Jesus Collective: Part Two

Warm-Up

Share about a time that you were 'chosen.'

Read 1 Peter 1:1-12

1. According to v. 1-2, what were God's elect chosen for? Is this the same or different from what you normally think of when you think of those God chooses?
2. In v 3-9, Peter talks about the living hope we have through Christ. How would you describe this living hope?
3. How do you think faith could help during a trial, maybe like the trials these Christians were experiencing?
4. Is rejoicing in a trial unrealistic? Have you ever been thankful for a trial during it? After? Share about those experiences.
5. As we consider the hope we have in Jesus, who comes to mind that you'd like to also experience this hope? Share that person with your group. As a group, close in prayer for your list of loved ones/friends that you would like to share the hope of Jesus with.
