Week 3 — Wonder Series

1. When you hear the word father, what feelings or memories come to mind, and how does that shape the way you hear Jesus described as Everlasting Father?
2. Isaiah's audience lived under failing leaders and rising threats; how do you imagine they would have heard the promise of an everlasting ruler, and what part of that title speaks most to you today?
3. What kind of joy in your life feels durable rather than temporary, and how might Jesus' everlasting care shift the way you understand joy as something deeper than circumstance?
4. Where have you experienced a "long night" season, and how does the idea of a Father who never stops caring bring light or meaning into that place?
5. What most commonly undermines your joy—stress, fear, comparison, distraction—and why do you think those particular things hit you hardest?
6. Where do you need God to breathe fresh life into something worn out, and how have seasons of waiting in the past stretched or strengthened your ability to experience joy?
7. What helps you trust that God's care is steady and long-term, and how could reflecting His joy this week (in even a small way) make a difference for you or someone else?
