Community Group Questions:

Bible Reading: 2 Peter 1:16-2:22

1. Read the transfiguration story in Matthew 17:1-13. If Jesus was being “glorified” in that experience, what can we learn about how God’s glory works?
2. This event seemed to be a major encouragement to Peter’s faith, even in prison. How does this event encourage your faith in the middle of your own difficulty?
3. “Glory” is a light that you feel, a light with weight. It’s like the radiant energy in sunlight. Peter seemed sure his audience would see God’s glory, even though they were suffering. When have you seen a glimpse of God’s glory that helped you feel stronger or more hopeful?
4. Do you find it challenging to recognize false prophets? Why or why not?
5. What does it look like to hold “faithful presence” among people who have beliefs you think are false?
