Community Group Questions: James 3

- In James 3: 3-12 the tongue is compared to 6 examples from our regular lives (steering horses, ships, sparks of fire, taming animals, fresh/saltwater, and fruit of trees). Which one resonates most with your own experience with your words?
- Do you care more about what people say or about what they do? Why do you think so?
- Do you think people recognize the power of their words? Why do you think so?
- Have you experienced words as more constructive or more destructive?
- What words regularly ring in your head, even if they are many years old? Why do you think those words have stuck with you so long?
- What has helped you most to train your tongue?
- What words do you most want to be remembered for?
- Consider a few of the following verses to memorize:
 - Proverbs 11:9
 - Proverbs 11:12
 - Proverbs 15:1
