

September 27 — He Is Awesome

ONE aim: To see God at work in the relationships He has placed around us and join Him in His work. Praying for others in this and sharing stories builds our faith and gives us courage. Be patient and extend grace to one another as each one of you devotes yourselves to following Jesus' lead in your relationships. Everyone does not need to share each time you meet. Let God lead and do the work. Pray for each other and their ONEs in your meeting time - you could partner up and pray, or have each person pray for the small group member and their ONE on their left or right, etc.

Read Psalm 139, specifically verse 6.

- Are there things in your life or your past that you can't stand the idea of anyone knowing, especially God?
- Why do we struggle to trust God when we don't understand what He's doing?
- How can accepting our limitations draw us closer to God instead of making us feel frustrated or helpless?
- Where are you being asked to trust God without having all the answers?

Other passages to consider re: God's wisdom and knowledge:

- Romans 11:33-35
- James 3:13-18
- Proverbs 1:7
