Community Group Questions: 1 Cor. 11 17-34

- 1) In what ways do churches divide over the practice of communion?
- 2) What is your personal background with communion? Do you have any memorable communion experiences?
- 3) In what ways are we tempted to make communion about us instead of Jesus?
- 4) When you practice communion, who is often “missing from the table?”
- 5) Garrett said, “There is no such thing as independent communion. Communion is intended to be shared with community.” Do you agree with this idea? How does this passage and Jesus’ first institution of communion support this idea?
- 6) Why is it so critical that we practice communion together?
- 7) This series has been about BEING the Church and not simply attending church. How does this message and passage challenge you to be the Church?
