Community Group Questions: Luke 15:1-7

- Do you think we are facing a loneliness epidemic in America right now? Why or why not?
- Does it seem ridiculous to you that Jesus “eats with tax collectors and sinners?” Why or why not?
- We usually don’t talk about “the worst of the worst” in those terms. How do we typically describe the worst kinds of people in society?
- How does loneliness affect our “tribal” sense of identity and belonging? What “tribes” do you think you belong to?
- What factors do you think have caused people to drift away from each other in the last two years?
- What would it take for you to “initiate a search party” for someone who has drifted away from you?
- Describe a relationship where you once thought the person was just “bad,” but after getting to know their story realized they were really just “broken.” How did that realization change your relationship?
