Community Group Questions: Exodus 31

1. How did you react when you learned that the first instance in the Bible of someone being “filled with the Spirit of God” was in two blue collar artisan-craftsmen? Why do you think you reacted that way?
2. What differences do you think were evident between the “spirit-filled” work of Bezalel and Oholiab, and the un-spirit-filled work of other craftsmen in their community?
3. Do you think God wants to use your spiritual gifts at church only, or also at work? Why do you think so? And what would that look like?
4. What kind of work/job has always seemed “spiritual” to you?
5. What kind of work/job has always seemed “unspiritual?”
6. Why do you think we see such a big difference between the two?
7. Jesus supported the Sabbath but changed its practice. American Christians seem to have forgotten all about it. If you’re not “required” to take one day off each week for Sabbath, but it is still an important and good “idea” or “mindset” for your relationship with God, what do you need to change?
