Discussion Questions With Emily LeVault

Week 8

Colossians 1:15-29

He is Risen! But we are still doing real, everyday life. Where are you feeling stretched or worn down? Are you trying to endure in your own strength or in Christ's power? Does relying on him feel impossible, why or why not?

"He is the image of the invisible God..." (Colossians 1:15) How does this verse shape the way you relate to Him—not just as Savior, but as the visible face of a God you can't otherwise see?

When you think about your own image of God, where does it align with Jesus—and where does it need to be corrected based on our series of the Seven Woes?

"So that we may present everyone fully mature in Christ..." (Colossians 1:28). What would spiritual maturity look like for you right now—not in some ideal future, but in this post-resurrection season?

Which of the woes will stick with you most? If you feel comfortable, please share why.

Let's flip the typical question from "How am I growing?" to "What prevents my faith from being the kind of faith that could help someone else grow?"
