Community Group Questions: Acts 10

- What stands out to you about this unusually ironic interaction between Peter and a Centurion?
- Have you ever been written off because of a stereotype? If so, how did you feel about it?
- Do you think you have written off others because of a stereotype?
- Some stereotypes are formed through honest personal and repeated experiences. And many are not. How can you keep your stereotypes from becoming unfair prejudices against other individuals?
- In what ways do we tend to treat people as representatives of a “cultural group?” (defined by income, geography, politics, hobbies, skin color, fashion preferences, music choices, etc.)
- Do you prefer to be treated as a unique individual or as a member of a group? Why do you think so?
- What kinds of differences do you think create borders between Christians and non-Christians? How can we cross those borders appropriately in order to reach people for Christ?
