OPENER

HOST: “What is up, [environment name]! By show of hands and your most excited whisper you can possibly make, how is everyone today?

“I’m so excited to be back with you guys today as we continue to learn about our theme, The Great Gratitude Challenge. Learning about gratitude has been awesome for me. It’s so important to remember that we can have gratitude all the time, not just when things go our way.

“Today, we’re really going to focus on remembering to have gratitude. Everyone say, ‘remember’. It’s really easy, and honestly, really natural, for us to be in the present moment and not remember gratitude. Today, we get to take a look at a really cool story that can help us remember to be grateful.

“Before that, though, we have a game. Who’s ready for some fun?!

GAME SLIDE 1: Dice, Dice, Dash!

(As you begin explaining the game, have your leaders place obstacles on the ground between the starting and finish lines)

“We’re going to play a little game I like to call ‘Dice, Dice, Dash!’ In this game, our whole room is our game board. Here is our starting line,

(Gesture to the starting line)

“And there is our finish line!
(Gesture to the finish line)

“Your goal is to make it from the starting line to the finish line, and you do that by following my instructions. Between the starting and finishing lines will be obstacles; do not touch those!

“Up here with me, I have three things that are very important to the game. The first is to roll the die!
(Hold up die for kids to see)

“I am going to roll the dice, and that is how many steps you guys are going to have to take. So if I roll a three, how many steps are you taking? Three, exactly!

“The next important item is this cup right here. In this cup are directions: forward, backward, left, and right. If I roll a three on my dice and then draw ‘backwards, you guys are going to have to take three steps backwards. Make sense?

“The last thing up here is this cup here. In this cup are two very important pieces of paper. One says ‘Pity’ and one says ‘No Pity’. You see, because you guys have to follow my instructions, you’re going to run into obstacles. If you run into one, turn to me and say, ‘Pity Please!’ Then, I’ll draw from the cup. If it says ‘Pity’ you get to stay where you’re at, but if it says ‘No Pity’, you have to go back to the starting line.

“Alright, everyone to the starting line!”

AUDIO: Upbeat music

(Have leaders scattered around the space to ensure that kids are safe as they move around. Roll the dice and call out the first number)

"Our first number is [number]. Now let's see which direction we're going!

(Draw out of the direction cup)

"Our first direction is [direction]! Everyone take [number] steps [direction]!

(Keep playing as time allows. Keep an eye on if the kids aren't hitting any obstacles or are hitting them too much, and adjust if need be.)

"Great job, everyone, great job! Could you imagine if we used two dice and had to take 12 steps backward? That would be crazy! For those of us who ran into an obstacle, what was the thing you had to say to try to stay in the game? 'Pity please'! Another way we can think of that is asking for mercy. Remember that for our Bible lesson here in just a little bit, okay?

"Now it's time to check out our Bottom Line for today. If you walk away with one thing today, walk away with this. Let's see what it says!

SLIDE: Bottom Line

[Bottom Line]* "Remember to thank God. Let's say that together!"

KIDS AND HOST: [Bottom Line] "Remember to thank God."

HOST: "Awesome job, everybody! Now, let's get ready to learn more about gratitude and thanking God together!"

Memory Verse

What You Need

Worship Leader(s) 1

What You Say:

"Now it's time to take a look at our Memory Verse for the month! There's a lot we can learn from just this one verse.

"In this verse, we see that every good thing comes from God, that God is the source of all things, even the lights we see, and that God does not change. Let's check it out together. I'm going to read it first, and then we're going to say it together, one part at a time!

SLIDE: Memory Verse

"'Every good and perfect gift is from God. This kind of gift comes down from the Father who created the heavenly lights. These lights create shadows that move. But the Father does not change like these shadows' (James 1:17 NIrV).

"Now, I'm going to read a part, and you guys repeat it after me. Let's think about each section and how it can teach us about having grateful hearts for God."

WORSHIP LEADER: "Every good and perfect gift is from God."

KIDS AND WORSHIP LEADER: "Every good and perfect gift is from God."

WORSHIP LEADER: "This kind of gift comes down"

KIDS AND WORSHIP LEADER: "This kind of gift comes down"

WORSHIP LEADER: "But the Father does not change like these shadows."

KIDS AND WORSHIP LEADER: "But the Father does not change like these shadows."

WORSHIP LEADER: "James 1:17!"

KIDS AND WORSHIP LEADER: "James 1:17!"

WORSHIP LEADER: "What an encouragement! Today, as we're learning to remember to thank God, I think this verse can help us do just that. You see, it tells us that every good and perfect gift is from God, and that He created the heavenly lights. Sometimes it can be hard to be grateful simply because we can forget, but the good news is that we have reminders all around us of just how strong and powerful our God is. This verse tells us that God created the sun, moon, and stars.

"This week, as we're learning to remember to thank God, let's do one simple thing—look up! When you look to the sky and see the sun, the moon, or the stars, you can thank God right then and there for creating them. You can be reminded that He is with you always, and we can remember to be grateful that He's by our side."

Bible Story (Live)

What You Need

Storyteller	1
Host	1
Table	1
Bible	1
Deck of Uno® cards	1

What You Do:

- Download the slides and have them ready to use. If you do not have screen capabilities, you have Orange's permission to enlarge and print the slides on paper.
- Confirm that your church has appropriate licensing to perform or play music and sound effects in your kids' environments (see above under Opener).
- Ensure that you have access to Skip and Reverse cards in the Uno deck. Those are the two cards you will be referencing during the teaching time.

What You Say:

BIBLE STORY (STORYTELLER SCRIPT)

SLIDE: Theme Background

(Things to have ready: Set up the table at the front of the teaching area so the Storyteller can place their Bible on it and read from it. Stack of Uno® cards on the table.)

Introduction

STORYTELLER: "Hey, everybody! So glad to see you today!

"I have a question to start the day: has anyone here ever heard of this game?
(Hold up Uno cards)

"Everyone say, 'Uno®!' I love this game. It can get pretty competitive when I play with my friends! There's one kind of card in here I want to talk about, though.

(Hold up one of the Skip cards)

"Everyone say, 'Skip!' I don't know about you, but when I'm playing Uno, and I'm about to make a move to get closer to winning the game, and I get skipped, oh man, I get mad! Does anyone else not like getting skipped in Uno?

©2026 Amazing Life Foundation.
All rights reserved. www.joinamazing.com

"I need a friend to come up here and help me out.

(Bring up one kid as a volunteer, and hand them the Skip card)

"Don't worry, you guys are going to help them out. I have a few questions for you, and you are going to tell me if that's something you would skip or not, make sense? You guys in the crowd, help them out with their decisions, okay?

"My first question: one of your friends calls you up and says, 'Hey, I just won a free vacation to Disney World,' are you going or skipping? I'm definitely going to that one.

"Next question: it's dinner time, and you are very hungry. You go to your dinner table and on your plate is a giant pile of moldy cheese. Are you skipping or eating the moldy cheese? I'm definitely going to pass on the cheese, thank you very much.

"Okay, last question, a stranger walks up to you when you leave church and hands you a $100 bill, are you going to say 'thank you'? We would all say thank you, right?

(Thank the volunteer and have them sit down)

"A lot of us would absolutely say thank you if someone gave us $100, but here's the thing: Do we express thanks all the times that we should? I think if we're honest, sometimes we don't exactly remember to give thanks.

"There's good news, though. Remember, gratitude is like a muscle; it's something that we work on. Just like we've talked about practicing gratitude, we can also practice remembering to be grateful, too."

Setting up the Story

STORYTELLER: "Today, we're going to talk about a story from when Jesus was walking the Earth in the book of Luke.

"Jesus spent a lot of His time traveling, preaching, and healing people. In this particular story, Jesus was traveling toward Jerusalem with His disciples, and they were walking along the border of an area called Samaria. The Samaritan people and the Jewish people didn't really get along, but remember, Jesus loves everyone, and so He didn't avoid Samaria.

©2026 Amazing Life Foundation.
All rights reserved. www.joinamazing.com

"As Jesus and His disciples approached a village, ten men ran out to meet Him. These men were sick with a skin disease called leprosy. During this time, if someone had leprosy, they had to live apart from other people and stay away from anyone who was healthy. It was a lonely life.

"These men heard that Jesus could heal the sick, and wanted to meet Him!"

Jesus Heals

STORYTELLER: "We're going to pick up our story in Luke 17:13. The men stood at a distance and called out to Jesus:"

(Open the Bible and read Luke 17:13 NIrV.)

"'And they called out in a loud voice, "Jesus! Master! Have pity on us!"'

"It must have taken a lot of faith for these men to call out to Jesus. Remember, they were not allowed to come close to healthy people. They were separated, left out, and lonely.

"These men had heard the stories, though, and they hoped Jesus could heal them. So they stood at a distance and asked for pity, or mercy. In this group of ten was at least one Samaritan, the same group that didn't get along with the Jewish people.

"Our story continues in the next verse. Jesus said:

(Open the Bible and read Luke 17:14a NIrV.)

"'Go. Show yourselves to the priests.'

"Kind of a weird response, don't you think? They asked for pity, and Jesus told them to go and find a priest. Is it like Jesus is pulling an Uno Skip and ignoring them?

(Hold up Skip card.)

"Not at all! There's an important detail here. Back in those days, if someone with leprosy became well again, they had to go to the priest.

©2026 Amazing Life Foundation.
All rights reserved. www.joinamazing.com

The priest would examine them and decide if the person really was healed. So Jesus was telling these men to go get checked out, even though they were still sick!

“That must have taken a lot of faith. But all ten men obeyed Jesus and started going. As they were on their way, a miracle happened. They were healed while they were walking to show themselves to the priest!

“After years of being separated, left out, and lonely, they were finally well again. They could go home. They could see their loved ones again. Can you imagine the excitement?

“But one of the men stopped.

(Hold up a Reverse card.)

“The Samaritan man reversed. Instead of continuing on, he turned around and went right back to Jesus.”

The Samaritan Returns

STORYTELLER: “While the other men were distracted and caught up in the moment of the miracle, the Samaritan man knew the right thing to do. He remembered where the miracle came from and made the decision to return to Jesus and thank Him. He ran back and found Jesus. He praised God, yelling and thanking Jesus. He threw himself at Jesus’ feet and cried out, ‘Thank you! Thank you!’

(Open the Bible and read Luke 17:17-18 NIrV.)

“‘Jesus asked, “Weren’t all ten healed? Where are the other nine? Didn’t anyone else return and give praise to God except this outsider?”’

“The other nine men received the same healing the Samaritan did, but they skipped right over thankfulness and were ready to move on with the new life that Jesus gave them. The Samaritan remembered to thank God. Not only did he remember, but he made the decision to turn around. He reversed his path and gave thanks to Jesus.

“So the Samaritan returns. He praises Jesus and thanks Him with everything in him. Jesus looks down at the man, smiles, and says this in verse 19.

©2026 Amazing Life Foundation.
All rights reserved. www.joinamazing.com

(Open the Bible and read Luke 17:19 NIrV.)

"'Get up and go. Your faith has healed you.'

"All ten men received healing, but the Samaritan man came back to Jesus with faith and gratitude. He did not just receive the gift. He remembered the One who gave it."

Wrapping up the Story

STORYTELLER: "The other men in today's story skipped right past thankfulness. They forgot to give thanks to the One who healed them. The Samaritan man didn't. He remembered to give thanks, and he came close to Jesus with faith and gratitude.

"The Samaritan man chose to turn around and give thanks, and because of that, he drew even closer to Jesus. When we choose to thank God, it changes how we see our lives. It helps us realize that no matter what is happening, God is with us, He is good, and there is always something to thank Him for.

"The Samaritan man, the one who was known as an 'outsider,' is the one who got closest to Jesus that day. You know what that tells me? Jesus is for everyone. His forgiveness is for everyone. His love is for everyone. No one is outside of His love and forgiveness!

"When we remember to thank God, we can grow closer to Him.

"That reminds me of our Bottom Line today! Let's take a look at it one last time.

SLIDE: Bottom Line

What You Say:

WHAT'S OUR PART IN THE STORY?

HOST: "Today, we got to learn about the importance of remembering God. You see, it isn't just a matter of being polite little boys and girls, but when we express our thanks to God for what He does in our lives, it helps us grow even closer to Him! When we're careful not to skip right past gratitude, we can see and experience God even more.

"So this week, let's remember to thank God. We can ask the Holy Spirit to help us remember, and He's faithful to help us out. He's called the Helper after all! Through His help, we can find time to thank God for all that He's done, is doing, and will do in our lives.

"What are some things we can thank God for this week?

(Take a couple of answers from the kids)

"These are all great answers. We can thank Him for His love, we can thank Him for sending Jesus, we can thank Him for life; all kinds of things! Let's not stop there, either. Thank God for all that He's done, but also thank those around you for all they do in your lives, too. Thank your grown-ups, your bus drivers, your teachers, your friends, your coaches. When we express thankfulness to others, not only are we becoming more grateful people, but we can show others the love of Jesus through that gratitude, too. Remember to be grateful, and watch how gratitude helps you notice what God is doing in your life.
