Community Group Questions:

Ice Breaker:

- Who are some “problem children” or EGR (extra grace required) people in your life?
  - What keeps you from giving up on them?
  - How do you challenge them to become more for their benefit?

Read 2 Corinthians 9:6-7

- Garrett talked about how sometimes we read this passage and think Paul is telling that God rewards financial generosity with financial gain. But that’s not what Paul is suggesting. Instead, he means those who are generous with their time, money, and talent reap a harvest of Kingdom Fruit.

- Why might viewing this passage as financial generosity for greater financial gain be dangerous?

- How is your faith the result of someone else’s generosity?

- What is “Kingdom Fruit?”

- Read 2 Corinthians 9:12-13 for a clue.

- The 3 Kingdom Fruits Garrett talked about were: (1) Good in the lives of others (2) Thanksgiving to God (3) Transformation in the giver’s heart to be more like Jesus.

- How have you seen your generosity with time, money, and talent yield Kingdom Fruit?

- What do you feel challenged to be generous with in this next season? How might that yield the fruit of Transformation in your life?
