Community Group Questions:

Icebreaker: Let's play word association. I say, "end of the world". You say?

Read 2 Peter 3

1. When Peter says God is "patient", this word really means "persevering while refusing to retaliate in anger." Which is harder for you: persevering? Or refusing to retaliate in anger?
2. Why is God being so patient with us?
3. What will happen to the heavens at the last days?
4. What will happen to the earth at the last days?
5. What does "laid bare" mean in verse 10?
6. When Christ comes and "finds us" what will He see?
7. Are you at peace with Christ?
8. In v. 17, is being "on guard" an active or a passive thing?
9. If being Christ-centered means giving everything you have and everything you are to Christ, then what would be a list of things in those categories?

Everything you have:

Everything you are:

10. If Christ is at the center, and you move towards Him, what happens?
